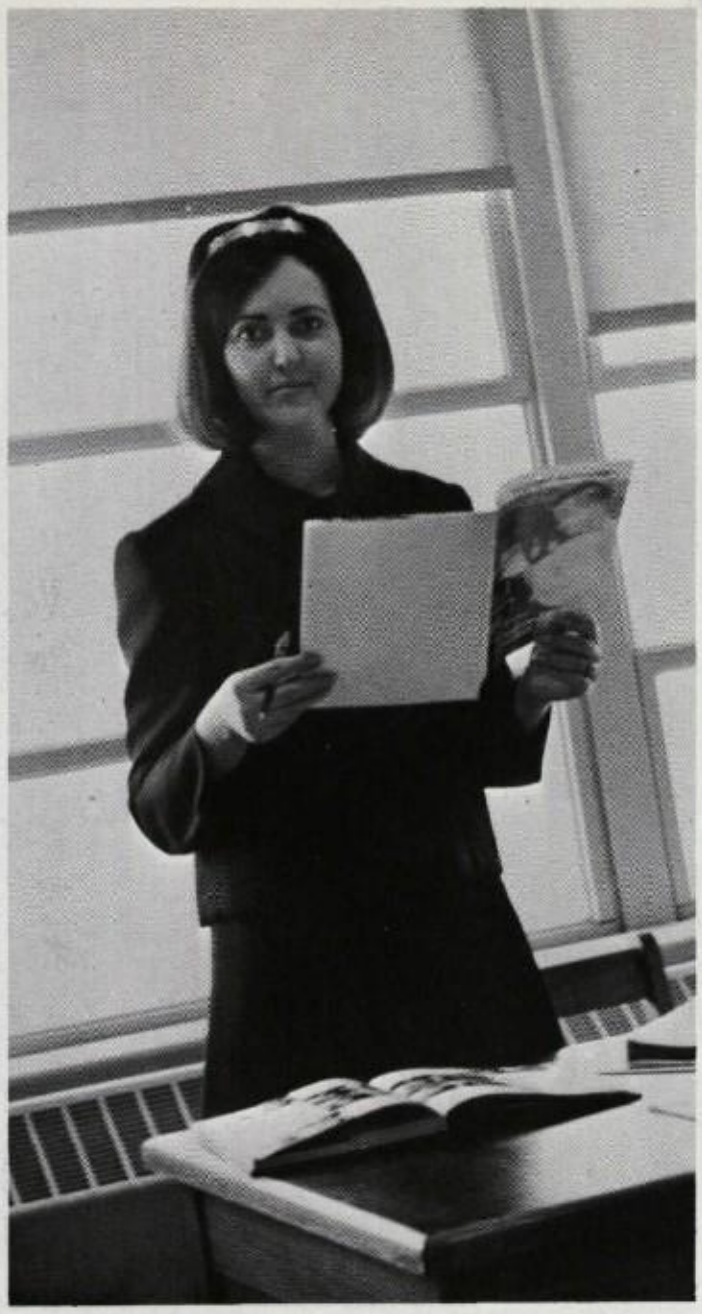
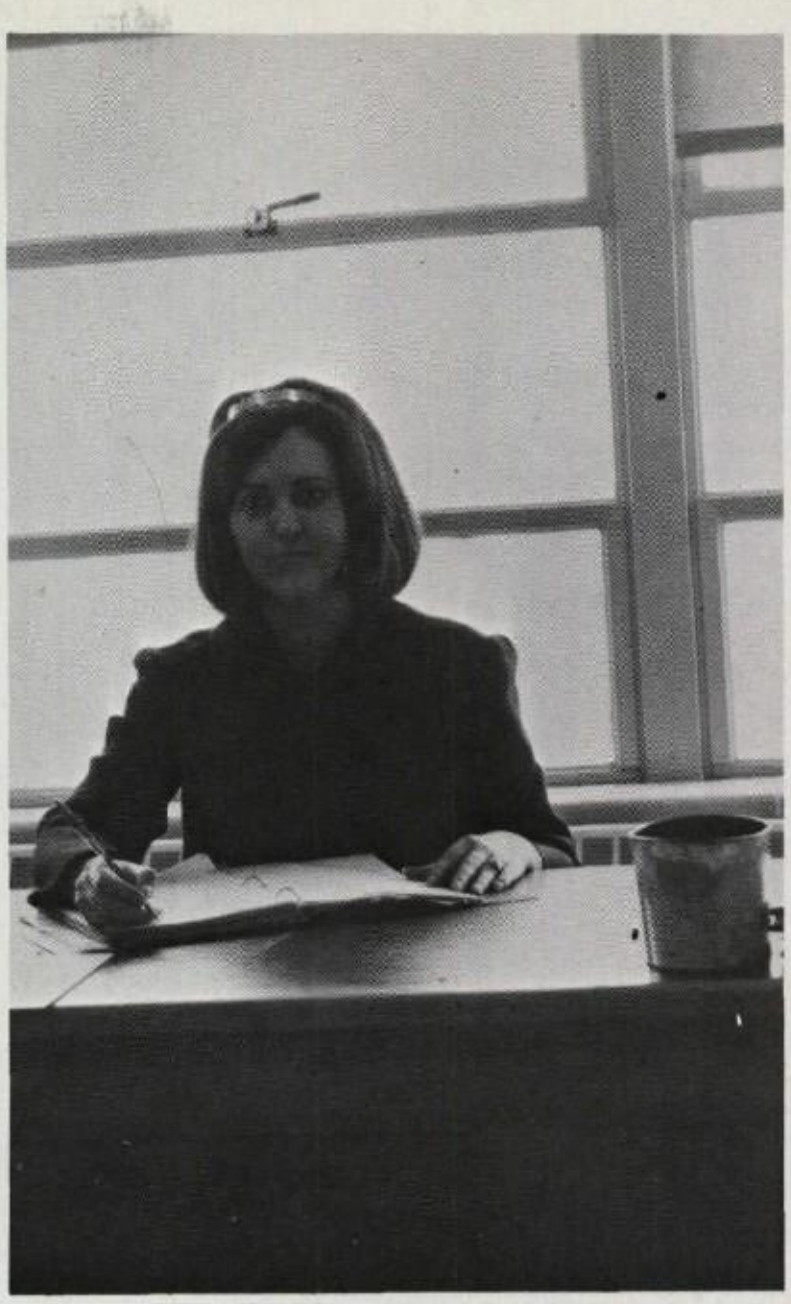
DEDICATION OF 1967 DEN TO MISS CHIMANE ADAMS





The Annual Staff of 1967 proudly dedicates our yearbook, The Den, to you, Miss Adams. Being our staff sponsor for three years, many hours of your time have been devoted to the annual. Understanding our carelessness and forgetfulness, you have helped us in moments of despair. By encouraging the students to develop their talents, you have made their lives more productive. Surely the Den Staff could not have been successful without your faithful instructions.

ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY

OUR PRINCIPAL

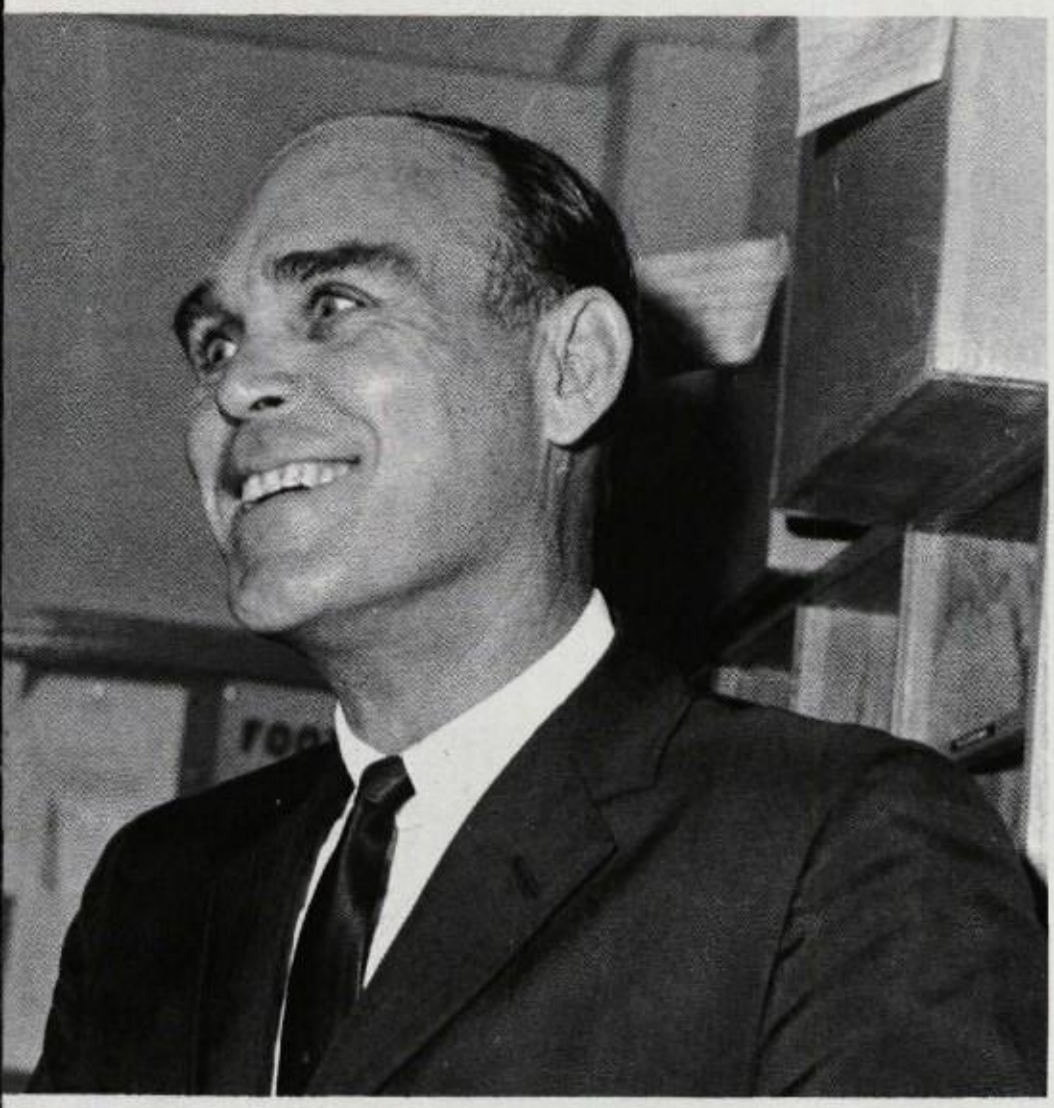
A well-known man to Trezevantites is Mr. L. R. Polk. We see him often—working out our problems, leading us in assemblies, and guiding visitors through our now-famous school.

Having been principal since the school's establishment in 1960, Mr. Polk is justly credited with its growth and progress. Before he began his role as principal of Trezevant, he had been a teacher, an athletic coach, and an elementary school principal.

Mr. Polk graduated from Central High School in Memphis and obtained a B.S. and M.A. degree from Memphis State University. He continued to further his education and has presently almost completed his work toward his doctorate from the University of Tennessee.

A man of many interests, Mr. Polk is a Mason, a member of Kappa Sigma, Phi Delta Kappa, all principals' and teachers' associations, and attends Second Presbyterian Church. Despite his varied activities, Mr. Polk still finds ample time to devote to his wife, Dorothy, and their five children.

ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL



This year Trezevant added another first to its list. This was our first year with an assistant principal, Mr. John Hamilton. He works diligently handling all the necessary student disciplinary actions and various other administrative duties.

Prior to his promotion to the office of assistant principal, Mr. Hamilton taught Industrial Arts, Math, Science, and was a Guidance Counselor. He further displayed his interest in young people as sponsor of the Radio Club.

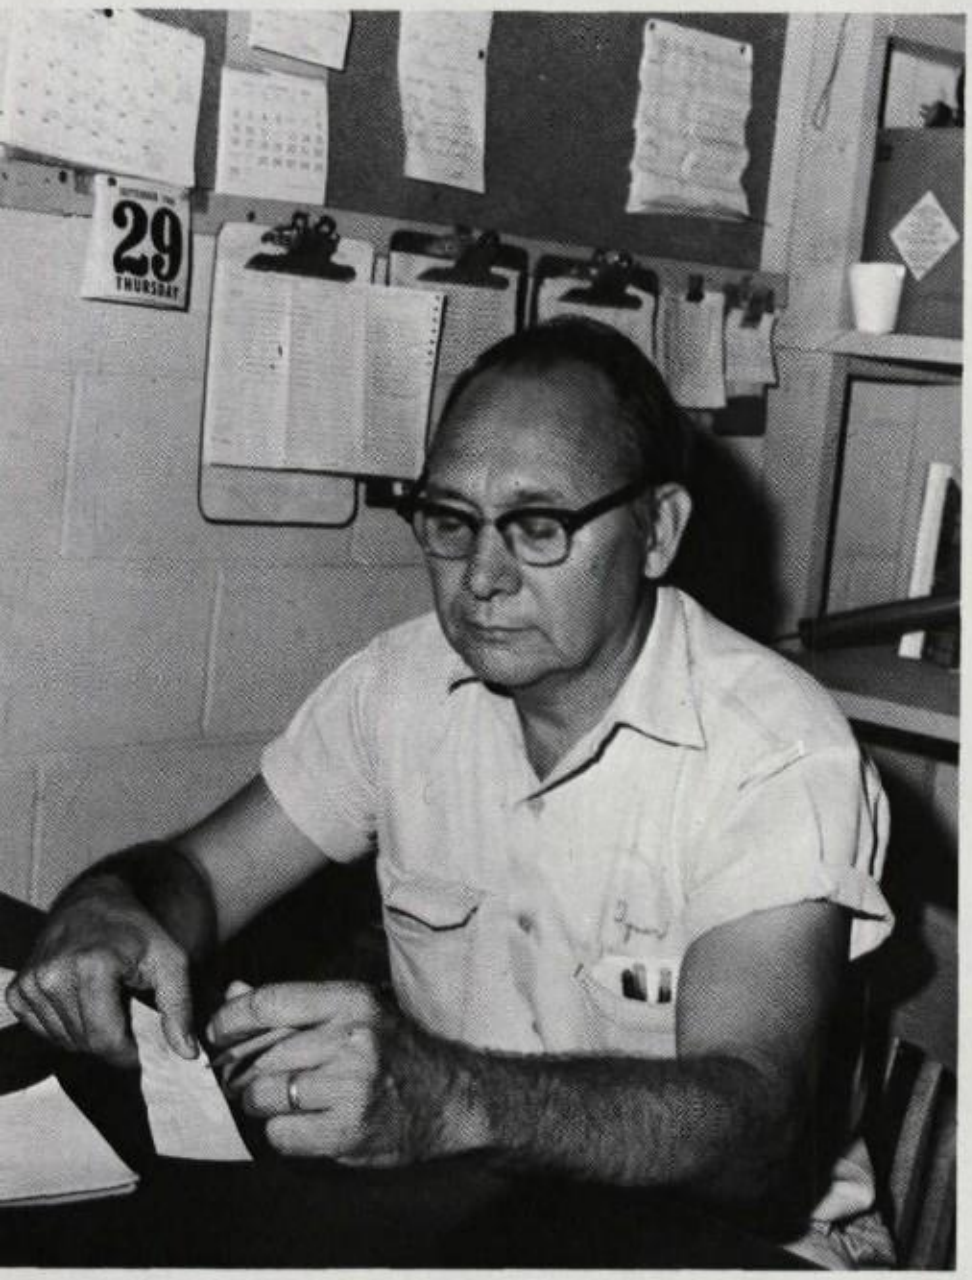
Mr. Hamilton's qualifications for the demanding task of being in charge of the administrative responsibilities of this office stem from the B.S. and M.A. degrees he earned while at Memphis State University.

OFFICE STAFF AIDS ADMINISTRATION

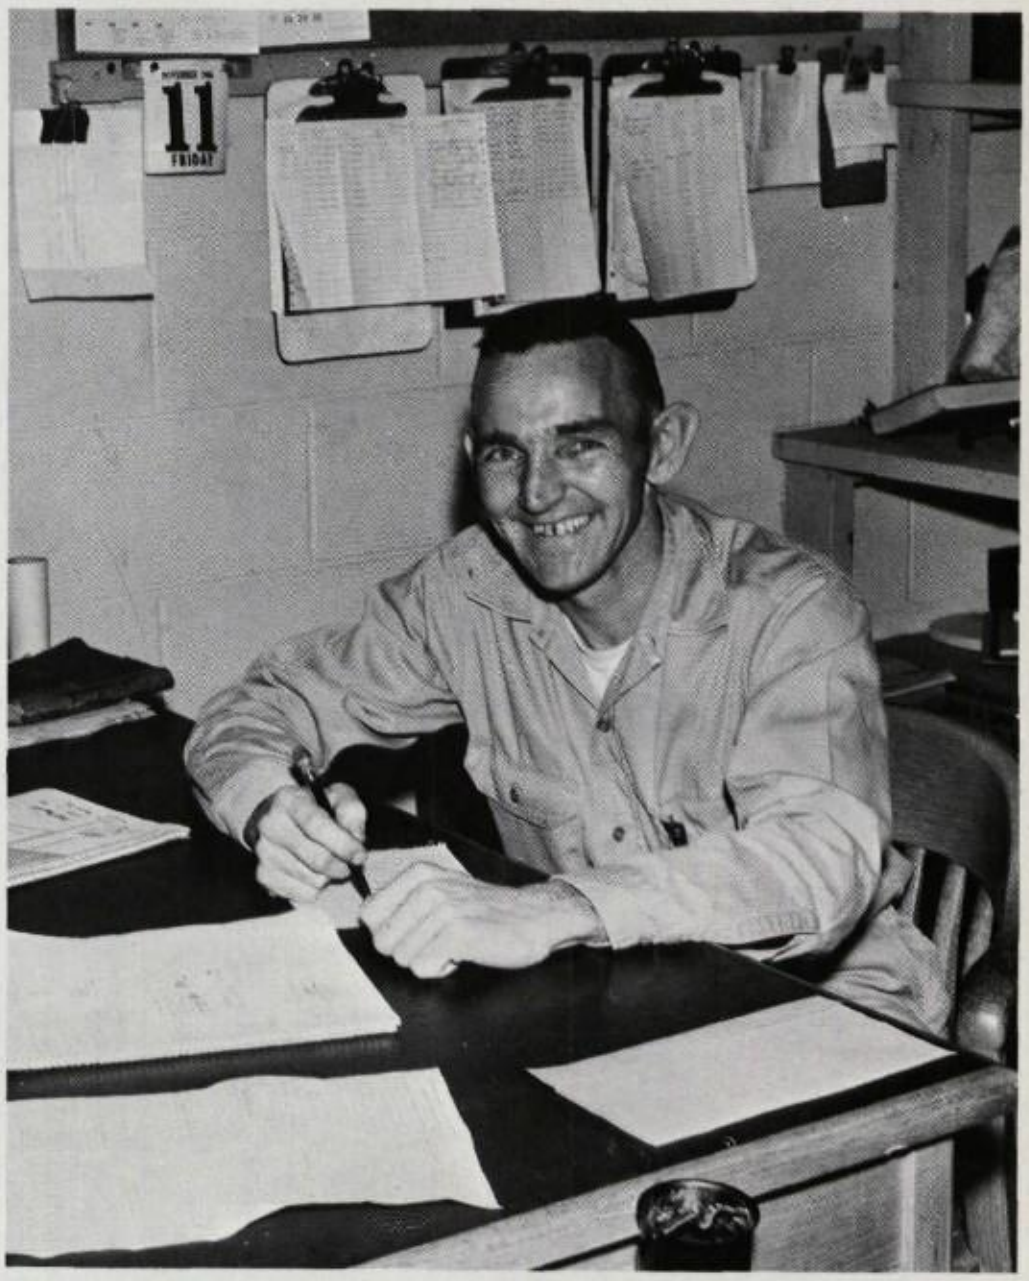
Our secretaries, MRS. THELMA GRAVES and MRS. CHARLENE RUSHING, perform invaluable services for our school. Many of the tasks which are necessary to keep a school functioning are taken for granted. We can thank them for seeing that tests are duplicated, absentees are checked, and the necessary clerical work is done. Whatever the task, they do it well, efficiently, and with a smile.

EFFICIENT SCHOOL STAFF AT WORK

are happy to welcome Mrs. Travis and Mrs. Gary to the staff at Trezevant. They very cooperative with everyone, and do a fine job managing our cafeteria.



Tyner keeps busy complying with the teachers' maintenance requests. school appreciates the work of the custodial staff—they keep our ding comfortable and attractive.



Everyone depends upon Mr. Kelly, who undertakes each task with a smile.

GUIDANCE

As youth, it is often difficult for us to recognize the need for proper adult guidance. Yet the youth of Trezevant recognize the need for and have this supervision in our principal, our teachers, and our two devoted guidance counselors, Mrs. Nancy Hern and Mrs. Clydene Booth.

These two diligently work throughout the day solving students' varied problems. A complete library is located in their office containing the latest college catalogues, vocational aids, and standardized test information.

IN MEMORY

MR. WILLIAM R. MIDDLETON

A man's life is his greatest monument. He builds it day by day, year by year, never ceasing until he is no longer upon this earth. Others may continue the building of his monument after his death by furthering the work he began.

So it was with the life of William R. Middleton. He dedicated himself to developing scholarship—in his personal life and in the lives of those whom he taught. The task of continuing his monument is now upon us, those whose lives intermingled with his life. By fostering the quality of scholarship, we can continue the purpose to which he dedicated his life.

HOMECOMING QUEEN — MISS BARBARA HALEY

The highlight of the homecoming game at Frayser field was the crowning of the new homecoming queen. As they approached the stands, Jeff Shotwell read the names of the contestants and gave a brief biography of each. Then the thrilling moment arrived when Scarlet Cunningham crowned her successor, Barbara Haley.

HOMECOMING CROWN WON BY BARBARA HALEY

Considering this a great honor, Barbara will hold this crown and title until the '67-'68 Homecoming game. This green eyed—brown haired queen is an active member of the student council and secretary of the F.H.A., and participates in all types of sports.

"THE COURT"

1966-67 BASKETBALL QUEEN

MARCIA GENTRY

As her alternates look on, Marcia receives roses with all the glory of a new queen.

Citizenship
Character

All of these are characteristics of a member in the Junior National Honor Society. Scholarship is first. One must have a "B" average to be eligible for membership. After a list is composed of those eligible, it is sent to the students' teachers. The teachers vote on the students on the above characteristics. Those with the highest votes are inducted. The percent of members inducted each time is determined by the number of students of that grade already in the Honor Society.

THE DEN STAFF PORTRAYS THE SCHOOL YEAR

Unknown to many, the work and planning for the 1967 DEN began early last spring. Advertisements were sold, layouts were planned, and work began for the next yearbook even before the current one had arrived from the publishers. Aided by our sponsors, staff members labored many hard and long hours to produce the fifth annual recording of the happenings and glories of Trezevant this year.

Ann Howell, Anne Hunter, Patti Craig, and Mike Dyer discuss an attractive rangement for an organizational layout.

Mary Ann Lowdermilk

Benita Clark

To plan the Faculty and Senior Class layouts, identify pictures, and gather necessary information were the tasks entrusted to these two staff members.

Pauline Weaver and Ginny Slayman had to make many decisions, as they searched through various pictures for our features.

Assistant Editors, Jackie Mitchell and Marie Gillespie, worked closely with all the staff members. Our deadlines could never have been met without their versatile assistance.

e staff photographer, David Unsell, confers with Janice in regard to a picture hedule. Many of the candid photos found throughout the book were taken by vid. This is the first year our Annual has been provided a camera, and we have en grateful for this asset.

It wasn't long after work began in September that everyone realized how much like a well-oiled machine the staff functioned, although things grew tense near our four deadlines. Now the last flashbulb has popped, the hectic routine of layouts and identification has ceased, and the last deadline is finally finished.

The staff has enjoyed working together on this publication, and we of the 1967 DEN are proud of our work and hope the "spirit of Trezevant" has been successfully captured so that students will be happily reminded of the events that made 1966-67 the year it was.

Kenleta Bearden, Paula Daniels, Rod Marbry, and Ellen Kimery worked very diligently on the various Class Sections.

SPANISH CLUB

The Spanish Club has had several parties and worked on a Declaration of Laws and Bylaws. They worked on projects to help the members to understand Spain and all of its customs. The Spanish Club sponsor is Miss Siegman.

FRENCH CLUB

Under the direction of Miss Ries, the French Club aims were toward a broader understanding of France and French literature.

LATIN CLUB

R.O.M.E. members attended and took part in the Mid-South Latin Tournament in April. This club is a member of the National Classic League. They donated personal items to the American Cancer Society for a Christmas project. This group is sponsored by Mrs. Golden.

The Speech Club promotes participation in Speech tournaments. They represent our school in several different events. These include poetry and prose readings, duet acting, oratory, extemporaneous speaking, and speeches to entertain.

'Come on girls we've got to sound ike 35 kids."

Each year hundreds of students from all over the Western Tennessee area meet at Memphis State University to compete for the title of All-West Tennessee division singers. Each student learns 1-9 songs and is judged in competition. These eight were chosen from Trezevant to join in the 200 member All-West Tennessee chorus.

LIBRARY CLUB

The Library Club meets on the second and fourth Tuesday of each month. Two main objectives of the club are to increase interest in books and participation in library work, and to arouse interest in librarianship as a profession. The club members are also responsible for the bulletin board display in the library.

Mrs. Avey has promoted a great deal of enthusiasm among the members by taking a group to Brook's Art Gallery.

The ART CLUB members broke the monotony of having regular offices this year and chose three responsible students to work with Mrs. Moss to plan activities.

Hope Johnston, Cathy Owen, Carol Carson, Mrs. Moss

The making of decorative pins was an enjoyable project for these Art Club members. The pins were made in various colors, shapes, and sizes; everyone who purchased one has enjoyed wearing it.

PREVAILING TALENT AT TREZEVANT

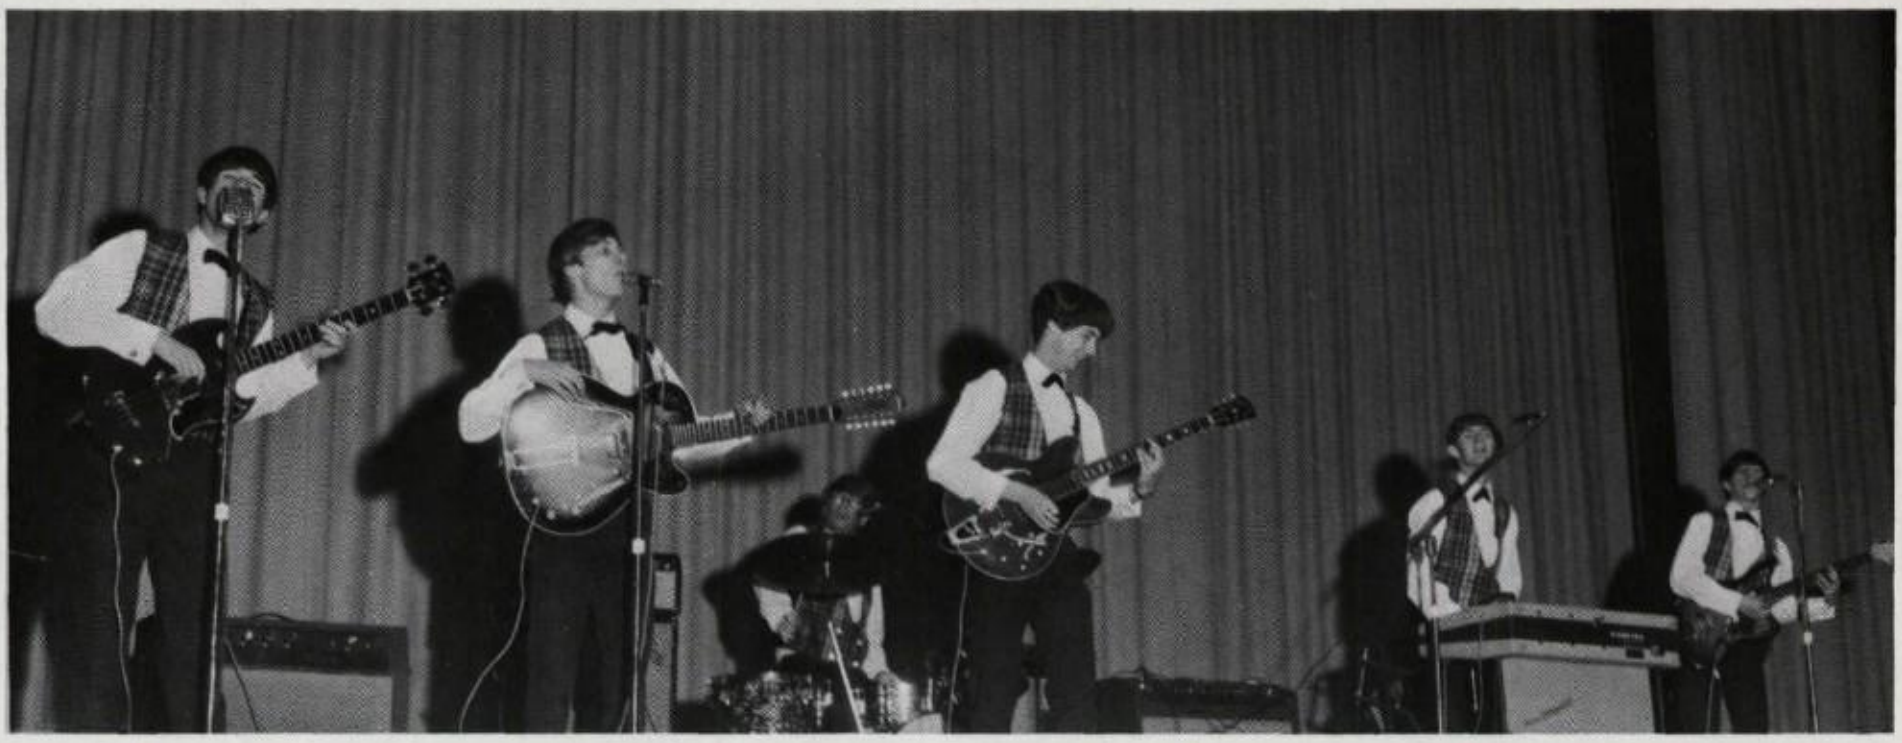
Master of ceremonies for the 1965-66 talent show was Bill Reeves. Thanks to his exceptional job the talent show was very successful and provided fine entertainment for everyone.

Captivating the audience by their enhancing duet were Carole Archer and Linda Simpson. The judges had a good ear for music and rewarded them a second place win.

Lynn Holcomb sang beautifully to a well deserved third place.

Marsha Rupprecht and Carol Williams sing their way to first place in the Talent Show.

Becky Wienert tries her acting ability as she steps through her pantomine.



One of the highlights of the evening was the appearance of the well-known and very popular OUT-OF-ITS!

BRIGADOON IS A "BONNIE" FIRST AT TREZEVANT

Brigadoon is a tale of two hunters who, while lost in the Highlands of Scotland, came upon a small town that is not pictured on the map. The townsfolk are very strange and are dressed oddly.

Tommy (Eddie Cox) has fallen in love with Fiona (Carol Williams), but she, fearing he will discover the town's secret, will not return his love. Jeff (Jeff Shotwell) has found a generous girl by the name of Meg (Marsha Lee) who entertains him in an open shed with her life story, including the many loves of Meg Brockie. During the day in Brigadoon, Jean MacLaren (Linda Simpson) is going to marry Charles Dalrymple (Ronnie Goforth), but her old beau, Harry Beaton (Pat Pankhurst), is determined to have her or leave Brigadoon. Tommy and Jeff learn the secret from the school master, Mr. Lundie (Hal Fuller). To prevent the town from coming under the influence of evil from the outside, the preacher prayed for a miracle. Every one hundred years, for one day, Brigadoon appears on the Highlands. That very night all of the people go to sleep and wake up one hundred years later.

Tommy feels that he could not stay forever in this town because of Harry's accidental death. In a very touching and impressive moment Fiona leaves to go home and Tommy departs for New York.

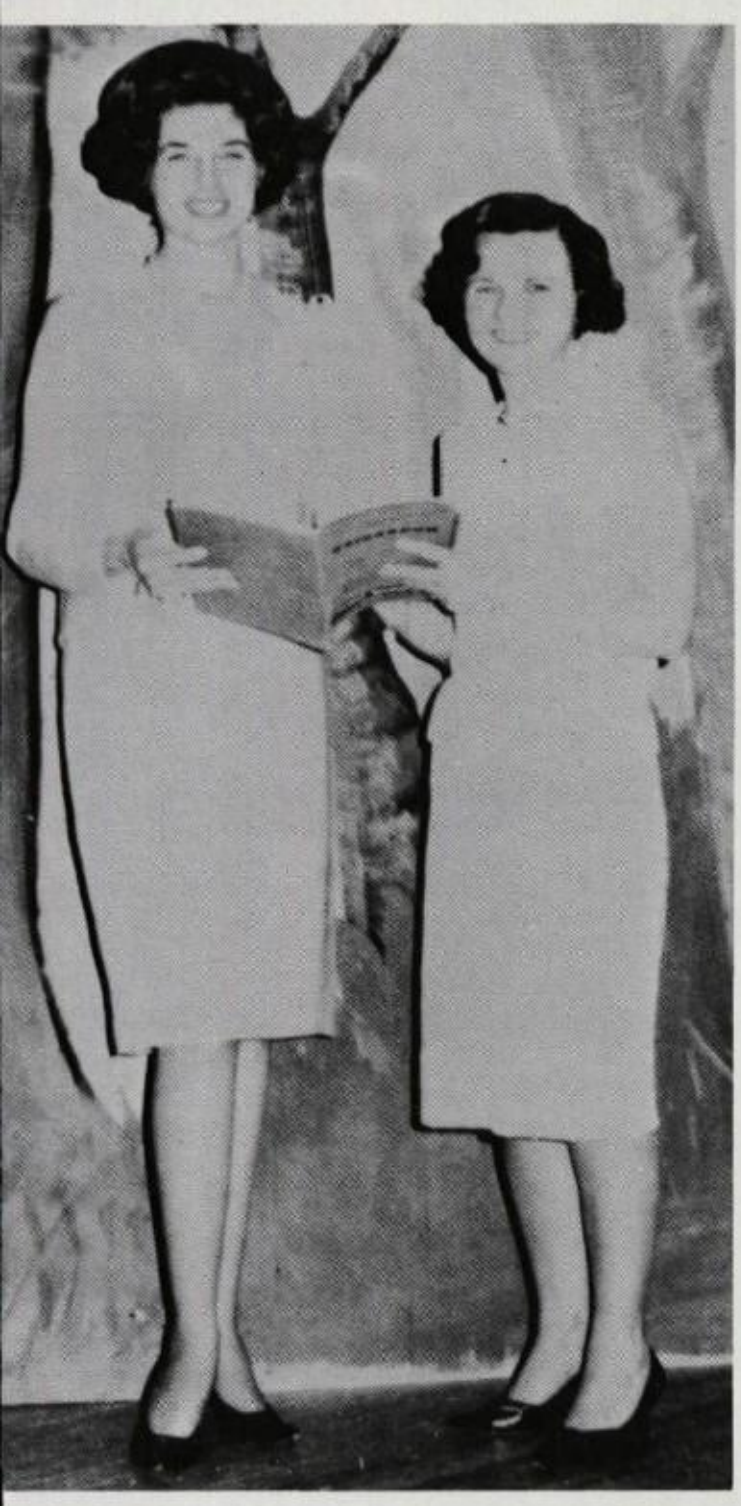
In New York Tommy is united with his fiance Jane Ashton (Valorie Glaze) who seems to have changed quite a bit since his trip. Finally Tommy realizes that he can never love any one but Fiona and returns to where Brigadoon was. In the midst of the Highlands Mr. Lundie appears to take Tommy back to his love, saying that even love can produce miracles.

Harry fights to the bitter end.

Tommy and Fiona sing "Heather on a Hill".

Tommy (Eddie Cox) looks on as friends (Steve Cory, Eddie Baxter, Jerry Stamson, and Cliff Morrison) carry the bloody body of Harry Beaton (Pat Pankhurst) back to the town of Brigadoon. This was the tragedy in Brigadoon for a hundred years.

BRIGADOON — A SMASHING HIT



s. Crabb and Mrs. Bonner helped to make Brigadoon ossible.

In the words of many, everyone in the cast and chorus did a superb job and really did make themselves proud of participating in this production. Despite flu, strept throat, colds, laryngitis, and other maladies everyone went ahead and gave a fine performance that stole the heart of every person in the audience.

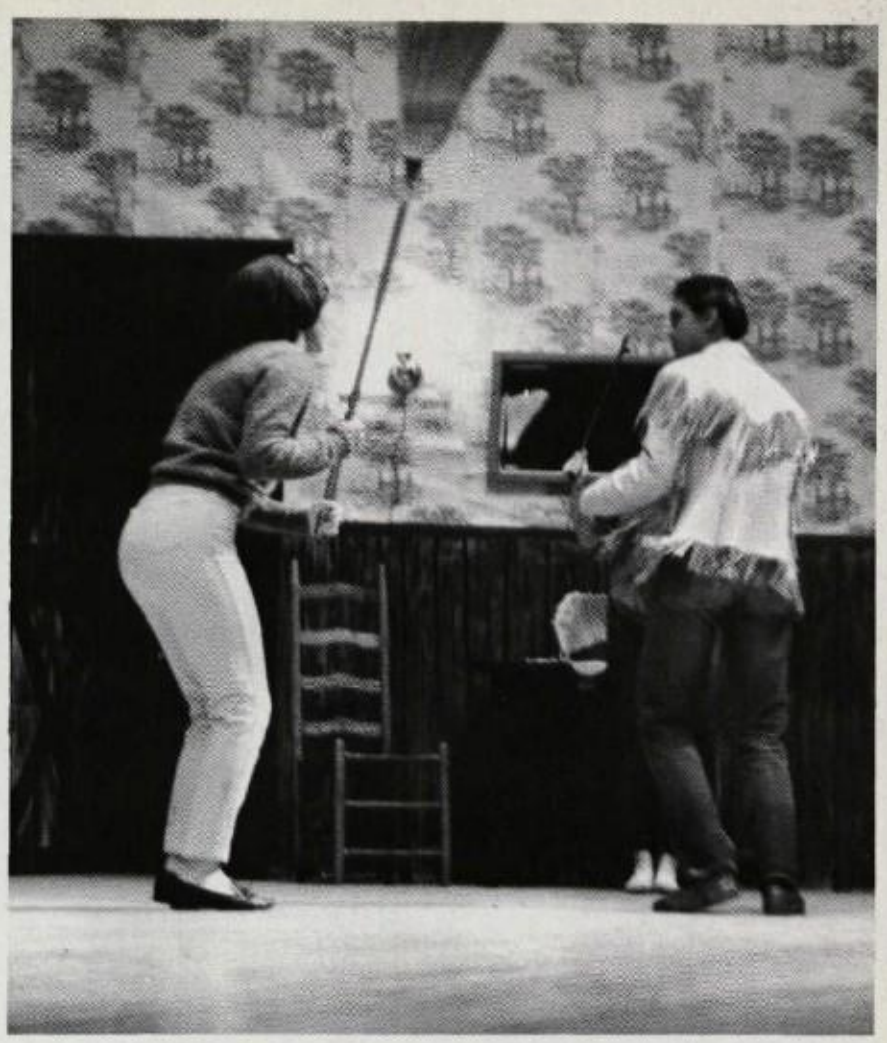
We're just one big, happy family

This is Delicate Daisy???

THE EGG AND I

The highly amusing play opens with Don MacDonald (Jeff Shotwell) clumsily preparing for the arrival of his wife (Susan Parham) and daughters, Anne (Carol Archer), and Joan (Linda Simpson) at their new home—the home is a chicken farm in the mountainous area of Washington. Betty and Don soon discover their neighbors to be Delicate Daisy (Leslie Wienert) and her husband, Mr. Manic-Depressive (Hal Fuller). The teenage girls regretfully find their new environment lacking in their most important commodity . . . boys. However, it doesn't take Anne long to find Thad (David White). He is a young man who is in the chicken business. After meeting Thad, Anne soon discovers that her only competition is Corinne (Barbara Petty). Corinne is pretty, though somewhat scheming.

Watch out!! There's a skunk out thar!



No wampum here! Now Git!!!

ACTING HELPS PRODUCE THE WELL-ROUNDED GRADUATE WE ALL WISH TO BE

Corinne's scheming doesn't help Joan's morale at all, since she has thus far been without a boyfriend. However, she soon has a wild succession of them when Hi Baby (Leslie Collier) and J. J. (Steve Campbell) appear.

When everything really begins to go well with the MacDonald family, Joan meets Ross (Steve Cory)—he is one of the five counselors at a near-by boys' camp. The audience now knows that everyone's major problem has been solved, and that the MacDonalds will remain on their beloved chicken farm.

All the backstage crew, along with many others, worked exhaustingly to make this production of "The Egg and I" a fine success.

No summary of the play would be complete without saying that Mrs. Bonner did a superb job with these speech and drama students.

Listen, guys, you gotta look MEAN!

As the last sheet of copy goes to press, the 1967 DEN staff would like to take this opportunity to express our thanks to the many people who have made this yearbook possible.

It is fitting that we first express our thanks to Miss Adams and Mrs. Arnold for their guidance, patience, and time. Their tireless efforts and encouragements were an indispensable factor in the editing of the book.

The publication of the yearbook would not have been possible if it had not been for the understanding teachers who were lenient and thoughtful enough to cooperate with us. We especially appreciate their cooperation in letting us interrupt their classes in order to take pictures.

All in all, the completion of the yearbook was due to the joint effort of the faculty, student body, and the Den staff. We hope the results will be favorable to everyone.

As the end of the school year draws near, we realize that it is a happy time for many; for others it is a time of thoughtful sadness. For the seniors the high-school years have ended—years of growing, learning, happiness, disappointment, excitement, tears, seriousness, hard work, and even fun. In the future some of you will have your names recorded in history books like the ones you have just left; others will have the rich, unrecorded experiences of everyday life, become strong Americans, and send their children to school in order to give them the wonderful memories they have had.
